Bloodgood's Black Cocker Spaniel Takes President's Cup at White Plains.

WYCOLLAR BOY RESERVE

WRITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 24 .- Chamon Durbar, Hildreth K. Bloodgood's sk cocker spaniel, reached the zenith of a successful show career when he won the president's cup, offered by Howard Willets for best in the show at the fourth annual fixture of the Westchester Kennel Club, held at the Gedney Farms yesterday.

Durbar won over all at the Belmont Park fixture last month, but on that occasion those eligible to compete were restricted to members of the club and Durbar did not have as strong a field pitted against him. To-day all comers were eligible and twenty-five sterling imens came in for leading honors. was a magnificent lot of dogs that went through their paces for Judges Dr. J. E. De Mund and Charles Hopton, and there were at least ten among them which are recognized kings of their respective

The winning of Durbar was indorsed by critics and met the approval of a throng at the ringside. Mrs. Roy A. Rainey's sensational wire fox terrier, Wycollar Boy, was reserve to the cocker, and Rockcliffe Kennel's English bulldog. Champion Oak Nana, the best of the posite sex.

Among the also rans were the English eetter Claude of Camian, placed best in show at the Edgewood Kennel Club's fixture two weeks ago; the English bull-dog Champion Lord Brilliant, greyhound Lansdowne Sunflower, Irish setter Cham-pion Midwood Red Jacket, bullterrier Noross Blue Moon, pomeranian Supreme Burprise and many other stars which Surprise and many other stars which had led in their regular breed classes.

Show a Big Success.

The show was one of the most successful and prettiest events seen in the metropolitan district in many a day. The dogs were benched and shown in an apple orchard, the gnarled old trees providing shade and lending picturesqueness to the setting. A large crowd largely made up of the socially prominent throughout the Westchester summer colonies througed the ringside during the judging. The weather man reing the judging. siderable interest was attached to Considerable interest was attached to the judging of Charles G. Hopton in the wire haired fox terrier ring. Mrs. Rey A. Rainey's Wycoilar Boy made his first appearance in this section since the Westminster and he won as the best of his breed.

This sensational little tike came into the ring in grand condition. He has im-proved greatly over his Westminster form, when it was admitted he was not at his best. He seems to have made up all over, shows more rib and was in Reserve in dogs was another Rainey entry, the young Conejo Highbrow getting that place. A few more months to mature will find this youngster at the top rung of the ladder. He has great promise and will make a name for American bred terriers.

Another grand home bred was introduced by Mrs. Cari Ehiermann, Jr., in Croydon Radium, a son of the famous Champion Wire Boy of Paignton, which bears a marked resemblance to Wycollar Boy, also sired by Wire Boy. Radium also needs age to make up a bit in body. He is a rare, clean cut terrier with a He is a rare, clean cut terrier with a Research of Alexandra Sch. Wallards Sch. Bates's Ch. Blarmey Kilmona. SOUTHAMPTON SHOW ATTRACTS FANCIERS

Trouble Over Eligibility of La France Kennels, Res. Crabtree Is the Only Discordant Note.

ENGLISHMAN IS ANGRY

Frank F. Dole and his staff are as busy as the proverbial bees at the headquarters of the Southampton Kennel Club at 1451 Broadway. The influx of entries for the third annual show of this club to be held on the Meadow Club grounds at Southampton on Saturday, July 8, has kept all hands busy for the last few days and to date the total received is in excess of the number the lists last year. Tuesday is the last day that exhibitors will have an opportunity to make nominations, and as the rule of the kennel club prohibits the accepting of entries after the date set for closing, Supt. Dole requests that all who wish to enter dogs mail their The list of judges offered at this show is proving a drawing card, but this is augmented by a number of other at-

Word was sent Crabtree, who has been visiting Mrs. Anita Baidwin at Santa Anita, Cal., of the action taken by the kennel club and he at once wheel his denial of the charge to his friend John E. Horrax. The statement made by him as as follows:

"Am not a professional handler and never have been. To verify this statement apply to Mr. Jaquet, so-retary of the English Kennel Club. When I was with my brother I had an interest in the dogs for six years. Have neither kept nor handled any dogs but my own. "SAMUEL CRAFTEE."
